Lionhart Results, LLC is a WBENC-Certified WBE and WOSB, HUBZone-Certified by Texas CPA, and a VOSB, certified by the Department of Veteran Affairs. Lionhart Results, founded in June 2016 and headquartered in Stafford, TX, develops partnerships and transformative business solutions with organizations just like yours. We recognize the commitment to supplier diversity embraced by corporations and government agencies, and we offer diversity to your supply chain.

Lionhart Results provides business development and information technology support. We are dedicated to filling the void between where you are and where you want to be; with over 15 years' experience in classroom and online technical training, curriculum development and delivery, change and project management, training logistics, and website design, we offer best practices, best value and best results for your organization.

We take a personal interest in the success of your company by using the greatest assets we have... our talent and our people. We work collaboratively with our clients to implement tailored strategies that lead to more engaged employees and loyal and interactive customers; resulting in systems that support and enable an organizational design and undergirds sustainable growth.
