

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Identigraphix is a woman-owned small business located in Walnut, California. We listen carefully, ask a lot of questions, and work closely with our customers to develop strategic partnerships that offer them unlimited creative possibilities and innovative opportunities to stand head and shoulders above the competition. Our team provides pricing that's determined by quantity and processes, not A/W combinations, set-ups or number of colors printed. Identigraphix dramatically increases visual appeal with multi-dimensional dynamic graphics.

Please reach out for more information on our services or federal contracting abilities.
