Capability Statement

Your All Day Everyday Janitorial Services, Inc. (YADEJS) is a San Francisco-based MBE, LBE, SBE, DBE, and SLEB certified firm that offers full-service cleaning to commercial, residential, and construction clients across the Bay Area.

We provide reliable, quality, and affordable sanitation solutions to residential properties, businesses and institutions. We understand that every job is unique, so we work diligently with our clients to create tailored solutions and detailed schedules that align with the project's scope and cleaning needs. Our innate attention to detail, and tailored services have allowed us to create long-standing relationships with clients throughout the Bay Area.

Located in the Bayview-Hunters Point (BVHP) neighborhood in San Francisco, we are committed to hiring locally, and mentoring young professionals in our community. Our grassroots mindset drives us to engage with residents of BVHP to not only provide career development opportunities in the construction industry, but personal skills such as money management, credit development or repair, and help families create positive support systems.

We take pride in our work and believe every small detail of our customer experience contributes to the overall quality of our service.
