Company Overview

Ares Hammer, Inc. is a premier logistics and supply chain management company specializing in the unique needs of the aerospace and defense industries. Our deep understanding of U.S. Department of Defense supply procedural practices, combined with hands-on experience managing OCONUS Foreign Military Sales (FMS) customers, enables us to offer unparalleled service and insight to both government and defense contractors.

In addition to our logistics expertise, Ares Hammer, Inc. provides comprehensive radar maintenance services, ensuring the operational readiness and reliability of critical radar systems. Our specialized technicians deliver meticulous preventive and corrective maintenance, system diagnostics, and upgrades to support mission-critical operations.

Our commitment to excellence and security is matched by our ability to handle the full scope of logistics needs, from strategic planning to post-delivery support, making Ares Hammer, Inc. a trusted partner in the defense sector.
