Pacific Chill Freightlines is a California-based company specializing in temperature-controlled transportation, specializing in reliable cold chain logistics for perishable and high-value goods. With a strong presence in the state’s agricultural and distribution hubs, we provide efficient short-haul and regional services that ensure products arrive fresh, safe, and on time. Our CARB-compliant fleet is equipped with GPS tracking and real-time temperature monitoring, supported by 24/7 dispatch and optimized routing to minimize delays. Backed by highly trained drivers certified in food safety and handling, we deliver full-service cold chain solutions, including refrigerated trucking, cross-docking, and storage, making us the trusted partner for growers, distributors, and food processors across California and beyond.
